NOW FOR THE GREATEST SHOWING

In Men's, Youth's and Boys' Clothing, Overcoats and Furnishings Ever Assembled in Paducah.

Our New Store Will be Ready in a Few Days

AFTER months of preparation, work and worry, thought and labor our new addition is, at last, near completion and in a very few days now we shall have the pleasure of showing you Paducah's, aye West Kentucky's, handsomest retail store--handsome in every detail. The store is rapidly nearing completion, but we cannot wait for it to announce our fall opening. The goods are all in and in our great desire to show you what we have assembled for this season we cannot wait longer, but extend you an invitation to come and see the greatest lines of the best products in Men's, Youth's and Boy's Clothing, Overcoats and Furnishings ever displayed in Paducah. It has taken months of careful, earnest selections to assemble the stock as we have and it is our belief we have never shown lines to equal those of this year. We have studied carefully the requirements of our trade and believe we have hit them off to a nicety. The new styles this season are handsome in the extreme. Ready-to-wear clothing has taken another long step toward perfection. For fit, style, fabric, comfort, wear and general finish our clothing and overcoats will compare favorably with the highest price tailors' products, and we merely ask an inspection to prove the assertion. The best dressers have found this true and you will find them wearing Weille Clothing. Why shouldn't they, when they save $10.00 to $15.00 on a suit? It will pay you handsomely to wear clothing purchased here. The styles are correct, the fabric are the best, and the price very reasonable.

Again we extend you a cordial invitation to inspect our stock and acquaint yourself with the fall styles. Our line of fall Hats is indeed swell. Just take a look through the Hat Department.

NEW FALL SHIRTS

The new styles and patterns in fall Shirts are "beauties" and reflect the best thought and workmanship of the age. The patterns are numerous and we commend our lines to your inspection while they are full. We will sell you the best shirt for one dollar you ever purchased, or we will sell you the best shirts that $1.50 or $2.00 will buy—Manhattan and Emery brands.

NEW FALL HATS

The day of the straw hat is past and it is time to think of a fall one. The new styles are very fetching, both in derbies and soft hats, and here, too, is seen the best products of the leading hat makers of the country—Dunlap, Young, Hawes, Stetson, in prices from $2.00 to $5.00. Then, too, we are showing the new styles in silk and evening hats. Come and see.

NEW FALL SHOES

These are cool days for low shoes—most of us have them on, too—and 'tis time to cover the ankles. We have our fall lines of Shoes—Shoes for every day, for work, for dress. Shoes from $3.50 to $6.00. Shoes from Stacy Adams & Co., Nettleton and other leading manufacturers. Walk in and walk out with a pair of Weille shoes and you will walk "easy" all fall and winter.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Congress.

Hon. J. C. Speight, of Graves county

DAILY THOUGHT.

It is easy to trail, to lean, or to hang on to the one who leads, but it takes courage, grit, and stamina to be original, prompt, and decisive, to stand squarely on one's own feet, and to trust entirely to one's own judgment.

THE WEATHER.

Fair weather tonight and Saturday warmer.

OUR REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS.

Hon. J. C. Speight, of Graves, republican nominee for congress, is a man whose standing and ability insure a career in congress that would make the First district proud of him.

Why send a figurehead to the national capital when he can accomplish nothing? With a republican from "the Gibraltar" the district would get many benefits. The people would be surprised at the difference. It would go a long way towards securing improvements in the Ohio, a lock and dam near Paducah to give a boating stage the year around, and thus benefit every merchant, as well as thousands of others interested directly or indirectly in river commerce. This is cited as only one instance. Many other things could be accomplished as well.

It is well known why democrats can't do these things as well as a republican. A democrat in congress usually spends his time trying to make himself solid with his constituents by abusing the republican party, its policies, and the administration, and as a result, he gets very little of what he asks because he has to look to those he abuses for it. This may not be right, but it is true, and it is the facts we have to deal with in discussing such questions.

A man is sent to congress to represent his district and do something for it. It is consequently advisable to send a man who can accomplish the most and if the voters in the First district will elect Mr. Speight, they will not be long in seeing a great improvement. He will do something besides make a speech once a year, cast his vote—usually "nay"—when his name is called, and draw his mileage and salary.

IN GOOD HANDS.

The duties of one of the most important offices under the government, that of first assistant postmaster general, are now being performed by a man who is destined to rise still higher in the world—Chief Clerk John J. Howley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

First assistant Postmaster General Wynne is in Europe recuperating, and has left his work in charge.

Mr. Howley occupies his present station by reason of his thorough knowledge of the details of the postal service. He has made many friends in the department and among public men since he has been in Washington. All know him as a kind-hearted man who is ever ready to assist the needy and meritorious. He is approachable to all and never breaks his word.

The "Postmaster Advocate" says of him:

"Mr. Howley's early education was secured in the public schools of Brooklyn. After having been employed in a business house in New York City for a few years he went west, where he learned telegraphy and obtained employment as a telegraph operator. Later he returned to New York and was appointed as telegrapher with the New York Central railroad. While thus employed he learned stenography and was afterwards connected with the Pullman Palace Car company in that capacity. After four years' employment with the latter company he successfully passed the competitive civil service examination and was appointed from the New York register and assigned to the $1,000 grade as stenographer to the chief clerk of the dead letter office. After remaining in that office for several months he was advanced to $1,200 and transferred to the division of salaries and allowances. In this division he remained about three years, or until Frank H. Jones was appointed first assistant postmaster general. Up to the time of the latter's appointment, and for a few years afterward, there was a statutory requirement that one of the clerks of the $1,600 grade "shall be a stenographer and telegrapher," who was designated secretary to the first assistant postmaster general. The first assistant, after vainly endeavoring to obtain an available man from the outside having these qualifications, learned of Mr. Howley's capabilities, and appointed him to the place. When Perry S. Heath succeeded Mr. Jones, he retained Mr. Howley and promoted him to $1,800. First Assistant Johnson and Wynne also availed themselves of his valuable services and experience, and shortly after Mr. Wynne's appointment as First Assistant Postmaster General, as he had known Mr. Howley for years, he made him his chief clerk at $2,500 per annum. Each succeeding first assistant has paid high tribute to his ability and loyalty and expressed the warmest appreciation of him.

"Mr. Howley graduated from the law department of the Columbian University in 1890."

Even the most enthusiastic democrat hardly dares hope that Judge Parker, in his letter of acceptance will get on the democratic platform, with which he is now at marked variance.

Democratic campaign managers are thoroughly disgusted with Vice-Presidential Candidate Davis who seems determined to act as the watch dog of his own treasury instead of showing a proper appreciation of the motives that prompted his nomination.

Wheat is up but even the democrats are not looking for a sympathetic rise in the price of silver.

"The laborer is worthy of his hire." What did the democrats pay for party work in Vermont?

Hints have been made that the democratic Chairman Taggart should retire, because he is not of national reputation. Leave him alone and he will be.

Taggart is wanted in Indiana to save the state.

COURT OF APPEALS TO DECIDE

Covington, Ky., Sept. 16.—Special Judge Mackey has declared unconstitutional the amendment to the election law passed by the last Kentucky legislature compelling all voters registering to secure from the clerks of their respective counties a certificate of registration. He enjoined John B. Yates, county clerk, from issuing any of the certificates of registration as prayed for Saturday by Dr. J. D. Collins, of Covington. Mackey, by agreement, acted for judge in the absence of Circuit Judge Shaw.

The law affects cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes. The amendment provided that certificates of registration must be presented by each voter and that if a certificate should be lost, the holder could buy another by paying 50 cents. The law does not, however, provide any punishment for purchasing or selling these certificates fraudulently.

According to the agreement reached between the attorneys on both sides in the case, the decision of Judge Mackey ends the matter so far as the circuit court is concerned, and the case will be taken to the court of appeals and advanced on the docket so as to obtain an early decision.

Judge Mackey, in his decision, said there were two questions for consideration in the case to decide—whether Collins had the right to sue and whether the legislature's act was constitutional.

As to the first, he said: "In this state I have no doubt that the remedy by injunction is the proper proceeding, and that any illegal expenditure of money by a public officer may be enjoined in a suit begun by a resident taxpayer. I am of the opinion, therefore, that the plaintiff in this action has sufficient interest in the subject-matter to enable him to maintain an action."

The second question was whether the requirement that voters have certificates, as provided in the amendment, was the "registration" mentioned in section 147 of the state constitution.

As to this, he said: "I am of the opinion that the provision in the reference to the issuing of a certificate to a voter, which he is required to present when he offers to vote, and without the presentation of which to officers of election he cannot vote, does not come within the meaning of word registration, as that word or term is used."

"The issuing of a certificate to a person who registers in no way serves the purpose intended in the registration of voters. The certificate remains in the possession of the registered voter, unless he loses it, and cannot afford any aid either to the officers of election nor to the public in determining any condition of the election.

"The requiring that the voter shall present a certificate of the fact that he is registered is imposing another qualification upon a voter not prescribed by the constitution, and is a limitation upon his right to vote. Is in no sense a reasonable regulation for right of suffrage, and if the voter shall lose his certificate the burden is imposed upon him of obtaining a duplicate before he can exercise the privilege of voting. The act under consideration disqualifies a person from voting, and if he would exercise the privilege of voting he must then pay a stipulated sum in order that he may vote."

The hearing was given Tuesday, when arguments were made against the amendment by the Hon. David Fairleigh, of this city. He claimed that the amendment provides an additional qualification in order to exercise the elective franchise; and, further, that it impedes and was intended to impede suffrage in cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes, and was therefore unconstitutional.

WANTS HIM DISCHARGED.
(From the Boston Herald.)
Mr. Williams has made two elaborate speeches of criticism, each inappropriate to the occasion when it was delivered. Can he do nothing better? Nothing more broad gauged in statesmanship and leadership? Then he may as well be discharged from service.

OTHER MINOR COURT NEWS

One of the quickest records of justice in the McCracken circuit court is that in the case of George C. Klatts, alias J. C. Smith, who was yesterday arrested for horse stealing.

The defendant lives in the lower end of the county and went to the Fancy Farm neighborhood, took two black horses out of his barn and came to Paducah Wednesday night. The man was noticed with the horses going out the Cairo road and later a telephone message from Bosworth at Fancy Farm gave the police the first clue to the theft. Bosworth had lost two horses and within two hours Klatts, who claimed to be J. C. Smith, was under arrest.

The owner came to court this morning and appeared against Klatts who was held over. He was indicted and this afternoon brought into court, pleaded guilty to horse stealing and asked the leniency of the court. He explained he was partially crippled, had a wife and children and to please give him as short a term as possible.

The jury was out about five minutes, returning a verdict of two years in the penitentiary.

At present time the case against Bernard Schulte, charged with converting property and goods of the Bloer-Grocery Company to his own use and benefit was on trial.

Tillman Wiley, colored, who grabbed a switch light off a switch one night several months ago and flung it down the Cairo passing train which was coming into the city, was this morning acquitted in court.

The solution case against Dr. Bernice Winters was continued until next term.

INVOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY.

The Kuttawa Mercantile Company, L. A. Boli, president, has had involuntary bankruptcy papers served on it by Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Sanders. Have & Company, Louisville, filed the suit and the company's representative must appear before Judge Walter Evans, of the federal court, next Thursday and show cause why the defendants shall not be adjudged bankrupts.

WAS ACQUITTED.

W. D. Cochran, arrested at Hickman for alleged bootlegging near Clinton, Ky., was yesterday afternoon tried before U. S. Commissioner W. A. Gardner and acquitted.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

James W. Packett has filed suit for divorce from Henrietta Packett, who is in the lunatic asylum at Hopkinsville. They were married January 24, 1878, in Henry county Tennessee.

Lydia Armstrong and others sue James Armstrong and others for a division of property.

A judgment for divorce was filed in the case of Lula Johnson against Bruce Johnson.

Charles Rhodes, white, who stole some jewelry from Margaret Woods, colored, chambermaid on the Dick Fowler, was dismissed of the charge of grand larceny and given one month in jail for petty larceny.

Ad Jones, colored, charged with malicious shooting, was allowed to plead guilty to cutting in sudden heat and passion and was fined $50 and costs.

Will Hamilton, who was returned from Evansville on the charge of robbing Constable A. C. Shelton, was this morning tried and acquitted. Hamilton was defended by Attorney J. Wheeler Campbell. This is the third attempt to find persons guilty of the robbery and all have been cleared of the charges.

An indictment was found against T. Mack, and his case set for trial the 12th day.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Sanders had a slim court this morning.

G. O. Klatts, white, charged with the theft of two black horses from a farmer named Bosworth, of the Fancy Farm neighborhood, was held over for horse stealing and additionally fined $25 and costs and given ten days in all for carrying concealed weapons. A gun was found on the defendant when he was arrested.

The owner of the horses came to Paducah yesterday and identified them, shipping them home last night.

Klatts claims his name is J. C. Smith and will not talk. He is considered a slick customer, although his horse stealing feat was a tame affair.

John Clairway, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

The case against Wiley Taylor, colored, for carrying a pistol, was continued.

SURPRISED HIM

Railroad Official's Father Arrives From Michigan to Visit.

Calls and Asks For Job as "Apprentice Boy"—Is 82 Years Old.

Mr. W. B. Wheeler, foreman of the jacking track gang of the local I. C. shops, was awfully surprised yesterday by an unexpected visit from his father-in-law, Mr. J. D. Cole, of Kalamazoo, Mich., whom he had not seen in sixteen years.

Mr. Wheeler has an office in the end of the jacking track yard, and was sitting in his small office checking over the time slips when a form darkened the door. Mr. Wheeler paid no attention to the intrusion as laborers are continually coming in for time checks, but finally, after Mr. Wheeler had sat there without looking up the visitor, thought it time to speak.

"Can you use an apprentice boy here?" was asked. Mr. Wheeler looked up and perceived an aged man, Mr. Cole being 82 years of age. "I know I am pretty old, but still I am a little lively and think you might use me to an advantage," the visitor suggested.

Mr. Wheeler thought some one was playing a joke on him and readily agreed to put him to work. He offered the man a seat until he had finish his business, but the man refused.

Mr. Cole then revealed his identity. It was the first time he had been here in sixteen years and had come in from Michigan to visit his relatives unexpectedly.

Mr. Wheeler was very greatly surprised, but immensely pleased to see his relative again. Of late Mr. Cole's health had been failing, but in Michigan people live to be of very old age, and for a man of 82, Mr. Cole is rather lively.

THE CITY WILL SOON BEGIN GETTING THE BENEFIT OF IT.

This morning the water was started through it, but on account of preliminaries such as flushing the hydrants, etc., will not permit the city to get the full benefit of the plant for about a week.

Beginning with tonight Supt. Burnett will have every hydrant flushed and continue to do so all over the city until the mud gets out of the pipes. There are many little defects to remedy on the start, but everything will soon be all right.

CAIRO'S CLAIM

Labor Day Games Not to be Counted, They Declare.

The Egyptians are Dying Very Hard Indeed, It Seems.

The Cairo Bulletin of yesterday admits that Paducah is ahead of Cairo, so far as the official records are concerned, and gives Paducah .693 against Cairo's .595.

The Bulletin, however, says that if Cairo gets fair play the pennant will be hers for the following reasons:

"If the game in which Goodwin of Vincennes pitched for Paducah counts for the Indians they have won the pennant. If the constitution of the league counts for anything, and the game is given to Cairo, we get the pennant."

"The second game at Paducah yesterday with Clarksville does not count in the percentage column, President Thompson, notwithstanding. Neither does the second game on labor day count."

"The game in which Goodwin pitched has been regularly protested, and will be decided by a board of arbitration consisting of President Thompson, a Vincennes man and a Clarksville man."

"That President Thompson would like to see the pennant go elsewhere than Cairo there is little doubt, but there is one hope that the members of the board from Vincennes and Clarksville will feel inclined to award the game where it properly belongs."

"The talk has been circulated and the report printed that the Evansville bat very recently used by Cairo had been suspended and that the games in which they played would not count. It is true that Minor and Cross were suspended players, but suspension was raised before they played with Cairo."

The Cairo Citizen claims the pennant in this way:

"Here's the way we figure it. Only one game on Labor Day is counted; only one of the games that Paducah lost to Hopkinsville a few days ago is counted only one of the games Paducah won yesterday from Clarksville is counted, and throwing out the 'Goodwin' game, and not counting it for either side, (as it couldn't be counted for Cairo) it makes Cairo and Paducah tied for first place with 149 games played, 71 won and 48 lost."

"It is now up to the board or committee which hears objections, to settle this matter. That board is composed of Paducah, Clarksville, Vincennes and President Thompson. It is very doubtful that Cairo will get a ghost of a show to get a square deal, as all these clubs have it in or Cairo and President Thompson especially."

"Nothing is said, it will be noted about the games in which Long and Lane played, as these were thought best to drop from notice. If these had been counted, Cairo would be a mile ahead of her Kentucky sister."

A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, muddy and yellow but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl. I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP ENDS THE SHOOT

Today Many Are at Wallace Park.

The Meet Has Been Most Pleasant But Not Very Well Attended.

GOOD SCORES BEING MADE

With the State Championship Shoot this afternoon the Sixth Annual Tournament of the Paducah Gun Club and the annual meet of the Kentucky Trapshooters' League will end. The day dawned bright and the weather was cool. The birds were fast. No better conditions could be asked.

It developed this morning that the meeting had not been what was expected. The attendance should have been larger. Tom Marshall, one of the most prominent shooters in the country, said to a Sun reporter that there was no reason why Paducah should not be one of the most famous shooting cities in the country. He stated that when Paducah has a shoot the marksmen count on a fair, great and excellent contest. Consequently they come. This year several prominent shooters are not here because there are other shoots in season and a number did not attend because the price of shells is too high. It costs about 4 cents every time a man shoots. Some times he wastes two shots on one bird, which means 8 cents.

This afternoon the state championship for 1904 will be decided. There are a large number of entries but some were not eligible for the cup. They are shooting for the birds and some for the money, which is to be divided. Those trying for the state championship are: Brady, Lyons, Ben Starr, Q. Ward, Clay, Kennedy, Carver, Page, Duncan, Mercer, Armstrong, Moses Starr, Beyer, Wilson, Edwards, Andersen, LeCompte, Alexander. The following are shooting for the birds but have no claim to the championship: Money, W. A. Davis, Pragoff, Marshall. In the first event at seven live birds the scores on straight follow: Ben Starr, Lyons, Wilson, Anderson, Spencer, Q. Ward, Clay, Brady and Carver. In yesterday's shooting at ten live birds, the following scored: Marshall, 10; Brady, 9; Edwards, 9; LeCompte, 9; Duncan, 10; Ward, 9; Clay, 10; Spencer, 10; Kennedy, 10; Ben Starr, 10; Henry Beyer, 8; Page, 10; Anderson, 10; Davis, 10; Alexander, 8; Wilson, 8. In the six bird event Marshall got 6; Brady, 5; LeCompte, 6; Duncan, 6; Ward, 6; Clay, 6; Spencer, 6; Kennedy, 4; Ben Starr, 6; Edwards, 4; Hansbro, 4; Money, 6; Moses Starr, 5; Anderson, 6; Page, 5; Wilson, 5; Henry Beyer, 6; Alexander, 4; Armstrong, 5; Prowse, 4, and Davis 5.

SHOT AND SHELL

Edwards is shooting the most valuable gun on the field. It is inlaid with gold and the talk of every shooter. The make is the Charles Daly Diamond Quality.

Tom Marshall is the only member of the All-American Team attending the shoot. This aggregation has been abroad and was never defeated individually or collectively. The team is composed of the following: Marshall, Gilbert, Crosby, Helkes, Budd Elliott, Parmelee, Fanning, Banks, Powers. Marshall was captain of the team. He now wears a watch charm with the inscription of every name of the team. In one year this team has shot in sixty-eight southern cities and in seventeen states within twelve weeks. This included Paducah and the squad shot as the U. M. C. Southern Squad. Marshall says Paducah is the best of them all. "Uncle" Tom is all right.

FOUND SAMPLE CASE.

This morning Officer E. H. Cross, of the Broadway beat, found a sample case behind the bill board near the Kentucky opera house. The case was brought to the hall and opened. It had samples of baking powder, tea and such merchandise in it with cards advertising the brand; hammer for tacking up the cards and the outfit of an advertiser. The grip is at the hall for the owner.

ABILINA

Abilena is natural water. It holds in solution salt dissolved from natural deposits in the earth. It is Nature's cathartic compound—a natural mineral water. Mineral waters are recognized everywhere as the most efficient, as well as the least injurious, cathartics. Abilena is the best mineral water on the American market. It is The American Natural Cathartic. The discovery of Abilena was a simple revelation of nature. For a long time after the first well was dug, the water, being unfit for domestic purposes, was not used at all. Practical tests afterward disclosed its medicinal properties and the report of its virtue was rapidly disseminated. Finally several chemists analyzed the water and the results manifested its great therapeutic value and predicted its future renown. Sold only by

NAGGING PAINS

Newport News, Va., July 22, 1903.
Last summer while recovering from illness of fever, I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism in the knees, from which I was unable to leave my room for several months. I was treated by two doctors and also tried different kinds of liniments and medicines which seemed to relieve me from pain for awhile, but at the same time I was not any nearer getting well. One day while reading a paper I saw an advertisement of S. S. S. for Rheumatism. I decided to give it a trial, which I did at once. After I had taken three bottles I felt a great deal better, and I still continued to take it regularly until I was entirely cured. I now feel better than for years, and I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. to any one suffering from Rheumatism. 613 3rd St. CHAS. E. GILDERSEER.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid or some other acid poison in the blood, which when deposited in the muscles and joints, produce the sharp, cutting pains and the stiffness and soreness peculiar to this disease. S. S. S. goes directly into the circulation, all irritating substances are neutralized and filtered out of the system, the blood is made pure and the general health is built up under the purifying and tonic effects of the vegetable remedy. Write for our special book on Rheumatism which is sent free. Our physicians will advise without charge all who will write us about their case.

ABCESSES.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world."

NOMINATIONS MADE BY THE DEMOCRATS

One Alderman and Two Councilmen Left Out.

Prof. Frank B. May Defeated For School Board Nomination By Dr. Will Gilbert.

ONLY A FEW WERE PRESENT

ALDERMEN—Charles Reed, A. W. Greif, H. M. Orme, H. C. Rhodes.
COUNCILMEN—Al Hymarsh, E. D. Hannan, J. P. Sleeth, C. M. Smedley, J. P. A. McCarty, Henry McGee.
SCHOOL TRUSTEES—H. R. Robertson, W. J. Gilbert, Thomas Herndon, J. V. Greif, Louis Clark, J. R. Renfro.

A few hundred of Democrats met last night at the county court house to make nominations for the council, board of aldermen and school board, half of each board to be elected this fall.

All the present retiring councilmen except J. S. Jackson and L. D. Watson, all the aldermen except Mr. Gus G. Singleton, and all the members of the school board except Prof. F. B. May, were nominated for re-election.

There was little interest taken in the convention, and it was practically run by one or two men.

Secretary Will Lydon, in the absence of the chairman, called the meeting to order, and Attorney Dave Cross was elected chairman. Mr. Will Lydon was chosen secretary.

Hon. J. Wheeler Campbell made the nominations. Chairman C. W. Morrison, of the Democratic County Committee, wanted a man named Williams nominated for councilman from the First ward, but Mr. Williams was not one of the gang, and he was promptly shelved.

The four councilmen named by Mr. Campbell—Al Hymarsh, Ed Hannan, C. M. Smedley and James Sleeth, were declared nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Campbell nominated the aldermen, as follows: Charles Reed, A. W. Greif, H. C. Rhodes, and H. M. Orme. These were nominated by acclamation also.

For school trustee Messrs. H. R. Robertson, Will J. Gilbert, Thomas Herndon, J. V. Greif, Louis Clark and J. R. Renfro were nominated by acclamation. Mr. Clark is a new member, and Mr. Gilbert beat Prof. F. B. May for the nomination.

Baltimore, September 16.—At the meeting of the Grand Aerie of Eagles, worthy President Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, of New York City, read his annual report. He reported that the cash assets of the Grand Aerie have increased to $70,000, and recommended that the per capita tax on all members be reduced from thirty to twenty cents per annum.

S. A. Read, Cisco, Texas, writes, March 11th, 1901: "My wrist was sprained so badly by a fall that it was useless; and after using several remedies that failed to give relief, used Ballard's Snow Liniment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend it to any one suffering from sprains." 25c, 50c, $1.00.

WAS ROBBED

MAYFIELD MAN NOW HERE TO GET INDICTMENT.

Mr. E. H. Crawford, of Mayfield, who was robbed of $32 and a railroad ticket at the Union depot the night Will Hamilton is supposed to have been shot by Special Officer Bailey, of the Illinois Central, while the latter was trying to intercept some alleged robbers, arrived in Paducah this morning to appear before the grand jury and attempt to secure an additional indictment against Hamilton and possibly one other, whom he thinks had a hand in robbing him.

The matter was reported to the police at the time but kept quiet until a clue could be secured. Crawford thinks Hamilton was implicated, but the police who have a description of the alleged thief, say Hamilton and the description given on the night of the robbery by Crawford, do not tally. Crawford will appear before the grand jury this afternoon.

WAS KILLED

MAD HORSE BEGAN BITING HIMSELF.

The horse which was brought to Dr. C. G. Warner, the veterinary surgeon, yesterday suffering from rabies, was the property of Farmer Dicke, of the Husbands road.

The horse developed such a fierce case, that he had to be killed. Last night the animal began biting himself and eating boards and the case was considered hopeless and Dr. Warner got a shot gun and killed the horse. A pistol failed to do the work.

This is one of the first cases of "mad horse" reported in this city for many years. A clear case of hydrophobia cannot be really cured, but sometimes a mistake in diagnosis is made and for fear of making such a mistake, the horses are kept until the real disease is fully developed.

CONDITIONS BAD

QUARANTINE IS NOT DESIRED
BUT MAY BE ORDERED.

Dr. F. W. Hopkins, the Cairo inspector who has been here looking into the cattle situation, has finished his work and reported to the federal authorities at Washington. A reply is expected in a day or two.

The conditions existing were reported generally bad and while Dr. Warner, local inspector, and Dr. Hopkins both fought against a quarantine of McCracken county, the federal authorities will probably weigh nothing but the actual evidence and this is damaging against the county.

NEXT TUESDAY

HAS BEEN SET FOR THE TRIAL OF WEIGHER HESSELETON.

President Charles Reed, of the board of aldermen, has set Tuesday at 3 o'clock for the trial of City Weigher Hesselton.

Mayor Yeiser has formally preferred charges of incompetency against Hesselton and the board of aldermen sits as a court to hear the trial.

Jerry Haight had gone to the hotel office for a few moments' rest and a cigarette and was nowhere in sight. But when the set broke and Miss Herrick, despairing of Jerry, had started out to favor one of the younger ensigns, she suddenly jostled against him pushing his way eagerly across the floor in the direction of the musicians' platform.

"Oh," she cried, "Mr. Haight, you've missed your chance—I've been looking for you!"

But Jerry did not hear. He seemed very excited. He crossed the floor, almost running, and went up to the platform, where the musicians were moaning softly through the mazes of "La Paloma," and brought them to an abrupt silence.

"Here, I say, Haight," exclaimed Ridgeway, who was near by, "you can't break up my figure like that!"

"Gf me a call there on the bugle," said Haight rapidly to the cornetist. "Anything to make 'em keep quiet a moment."

The cornetist sounded a couple of notes, and the cotton paused in the very act of the break. The shuffling of feet grew still, and the conversation ceased. A diamond brooch had been found, no doubt, or some supper announcement was to be made. But Jerry Haight, with a great sweep of his arm, the forgotten cigarette between his fingers, shouted out breathlessly:

"Ross Wilbur is out in the office of the hotel!"

"Here he comes!"

mystery, the legend-behold he was there, back from the unknown, dropped from the clouds, spewed up again from the bowels of the earth, a veritable god from the machine who in a single instant was to disentangle all the unexplained complications of those past winter months!

"Here he comes!" shouted Jerry, his eyes caught by a group of men in full dress and gold lace who came tramping down the hall to the ballroom, bearing a nondescript figure on their shoulders. "Here he comes—the boys are bringing him in here! Oh!" he cried, turning to the musicians, "can't you play something—anything? Hit it up for all you're worth! Ridgeway—Nat—look here! Ross was Yale, y' know—Yale '95. Ain't we enough Yale men here to give him the yell?"

Out of all time and tune, but with a vigor that made up for both, the musicians banged into a patriotic air, Jerry, standing on a chair that itself was standing on the platform, led half a dozen frantic men in the long thunder of the "Brek-kek-kek-kek, co-ex, co-ex."

Around the edges of the hall excited girls, and chaperons themselves no less agitated, were standing up on chairs and benches, splitting their gloves and breaking their fans in their enthusiasm, while every male dancer on the floor—ensigns in their gold faced uniforms and "rovers" in starched and immaculate shirt bosoms—cheered and cheered and struggled with one another to shake hands with a man whom two of their number, old Yale grads, with memories of athletic triumphs yet in their minds, carried into that ballroom, borne high upon their shoulders.

And the hero of the occasion, the center of all this enthusiasm, thus carried as if in triumph into this assembly in evening dress, in white tulle and whiter kid, odorously of delicate sachets and scarce perceptible perfumes, was a figure unhandsome and unkempt beyond description. His hair was long and hanging over his eyes; a thick, uncared-for beard concealed the mouth and chin. He was dressed in a Chinaman's blouse and jeans, the latter thrust into slashed and tattered boots. The tan and weather beatings of nearly half a year of the tropics were spread over his face, a partly healed scar disfigured one temple and cheekbone; the hands, to the very finger nails, were gray with grime, the jeans and blouse and boots were fouled with grease, with oil, with pitch and all manner of the dirt of an un-cared-for ship. And as the dancers of the cotton pressed about and a hundred kid gloved hands stretched toward his own palms there fell from Wilbur's belt upon the waxed floor of the ballroom the knife he had so grudgingly used in the fight upon the beach, the ugly stains still blackening on the haft.

There was no more cotton that night. They put him down at last, and in half a dozen sentences Wilbur told them of how he had been shanghaied—told them of Magdalena bay, his fortune in the ambergris and the fight with the beachcombers.

"You people are going down there for target practice, aren't you?" he said, turning to one of the Monterey's officers in the crowd about him. "Yes! Well, you'll find the coolies there, on the beach, waiting for you. All but one," he added grimly.

"We marooned six of them, but the seventh didn't need to be marooned. They tried to plunder us of our boat, but, by—, we made it interesting for 'em!"

"I say, steady, old man!" exclaimed Nat Ridgeway, glancing nervously toward the girls in the surrounding group. "This isn't Magdalena bay, you know."

And for the first time Wilbur felt a genuine pang of disappointment and regret as he realized that it was not.

Half an hour later Ridgeway drew him aside. "I say, Ross, let's get out of here. You can't stand here talking all night. Jerry and you and I will go up to my rooms, and we can talk there in peace. I'll order up three quarts of fizz, and—"

"Oh, port your fizz!" declared Wilbur. "If you love me, give me Christian tobacco!"

As they were going out of the ballroom Wilbur caught sight of Josie Herrick, and, breaking away from the others, ran over to her.

"Oh!" she cried, breathlessly. "To think, and to think of your coming back after all! No, I don't realize it—I can't. It will take me until morning to find out that you've really come back. I just know now that I'm happier than I ever was in my life before. Oh!" she cried, "do I need to tell you how glad I am? It's just too splendid for words! Do you know, I was thought to be the last person you had ever spoken to while alive, and the reporters and all—oh, but we must have such a talk when all are quiet again! And our dance—we've never had our dance. I've got your card yet. Remember the one you wrote for me at the tea? A facsimile of it was published in all the papers. You are going to be a hero when you get back to San Francisco. Oh, Ross, Ross!" she cried, the tears starting to her eyes. "You've really come back, and you are just as glad as I am, aren't you—glad that you've come back—come back to me?"

Later on, in Ridgeway's room, Wilbur told his story again more in detail to Ridgeway and Jerry. All but one portion of it. He could not make up his mind to speak to them—these society fellows, clubmen and city bred—of Moran. How he was going to order his life hereforward—his life, that he felt to be void of interest without her—he did not know. That was a question for later consideration.

NO KENTUCKIANS ARE ATTENDING THE MEXICAN WAR REUNION

So far as is known not a Kentuckian is attending the annual reunion of Mexican war veterans being held in St. Louis.

Time has so depleted the ranks of the soldiers of this war that few survivors remain to attend annual reunions, and year by year the number becomes appreciably smaller.

The call had been issued for Kentucky veterans to leave for St. Louis yesterday but at the appointed time not one of them appeared.

Only 253 survivors and 406 widows of survivors of the Mexican war are now living in Kentucky. During the past year thirteen new names have been added to the pension list of Mexican war veterans, and 794 of them have been removed by death. It is thus apparent that while there were one year ago 1,047 Mexican war veterans in Kentucky, there are now only 253.

While the number of Kentucky veterans seems small, the statistics in the pension office at the Custom House show

HESSIG VS. JOHNSON.

Following is the answer of C. W. Johnson in the damage suit of Ida Hessig vs. C. W. Johnson:

The defendant, C. W. Johnson, for answer in the case, comes and says that the statements made by him regarding the plaintiff, Mrs. Ida Hessig, as set forth in her petition, were not advised, and while perhaps he did not say just what is alleged, what he did say was said under misapprehension, and that he has learned, after investigation, that same was entirely untrue. And he now admits that the said statements were entirely untrue, and were without foundation. And he says further that if he had made the statements contained in her petition just exactly as stated and alleged therein, that same would have been absolutely untrue; that so far as he is concerned, the plaintiff, Mrs. Hessig, has always conducted herself toward him in a ladylike, modest and upright manner, and of course of nothing whatever derogatory to her character as a lady, and chaste, faithful wife. He now retracts and apologizes for any and all improper language which he may have used, or concerning her.

Wherefore, he asks that he be permitted to file this as his answer, and he asks for the leniency of the court and the plaintiff.

that there is no state in the Union where so many Mexican war veterans live as in Kentucky.

The official tables sent out from Washington show that there are now in the United States only 5,214 veterans of the Mexican war on the pension rolls. While there may be a few not drawing pensions, still the supposition is that the pension rolls include nearly all the veterans. There are only 7,821 widows of veterans drawing pensions.

The pension authorities at Washington predict that at the end of the next ten years there will be scarcely any veterans or widows of veterans living, and that the Mexican war pension department will have to be practically abolished.

During the last fiscal year the government paid out to Mexican war veterans and their widows $883,380.40. In 1900 more than $1,000,000 was paid out, and in 1890 the Mexican war veterans drew in pensions more than $2,000,000.

DIED IN TRIGG

"UNCLE JIMMIE" WATKINS A VICTIM OF PARALYSIS.

A former resident of Paducah died a day or two ago near Wallonia, Trigg county, when Mr. John R. Watkins breathed his last. He was apparently well and had been gathering peas all day when he was suddenly stricken by paralysis and became unconscious, never regaining his senses.

The deceased was born near Wallonia, in Trigg county seventy-six years ago. In early life he was married to Miss Mildred Husk, they never had any children. He united with the church at eighteen, ever remaining true to his religious vows. He is survived by four brothers and sisters—H. T. Watkins and Mrs. S. C. Burton, of Gracey; G. W. Watkins, of Rome, Wise county, Texas, and Mrs. M. J. Plemmon, of near Wallonia—all of whom, except G. W. Watkins, were present at the funeral.

Mr. Watkins had all his life lived in Trigg county. He was tobacco inspector in Paducah several years when a young man, but always claimed Trigg as his home.

When hatred has a long case on the heart no one is much deceived by your hanging out the "dear brother" sign on the lips.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, KY., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

Mrs. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

TWO YEARS

ROUNDED OUT TODAY BY POP-ULAR I. C. AGENT.

Mr. W. T. Dinneen, special agent of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, arrived in the city this morning on business.

Today two years ago Mr. Dinneen went to work on the Louisville division of the I. C., as special agent to succeed Mr. William J. Laffey, who was promoted to another position. Mr. Dinneen has made an enviable record and the I. C. has never had a man on this division longer than Mr. Dinneen. That he is giving the best of satisfaction, is established by the fact that he has not been transferred, and it is a compliment to his ability and a tribute to his untiring energy.

Mr. Dinneen has caught more criminals and ferreted out more petty thieves on this division than any other agent and has been a great aid to the local police in many cases.

It is hoped the popular agent will be kept on this division where he has made himself so popular and done so much good service. Mr. Dinneen came here from the Chicago division.

LEFT THE WATCH

OFFICER GETS ONE IN AN UN-USUAL MANNER.

Officer Aaron Hurley is wearing a fine gold watch which was presented to him in an unusual way.

"This watch" Officer Hurley explains "was presented by a negro. I was watching the negro at the depot platform and he acted rather queerly whenever I looked at him. I noticed this watch he had and walking over to him took it off his clothes and went over to a light to examine it and see if it had a number and was stolen property. Then I looked up after making the examination I saw the 'coon' making for the woods at the rate of about a mile a minute. I then knew he had stolen the watch or done something, and began to shoot to make him stop running.

He didn't care for the bullets and outstripped me. I have never been asked for the watch and still wear it. He can get it by calling for it."

CAR BREAKERS

TWO CAUGHT ON THE EVANS-
VILLE DISTRICT BY OFFI-CER DINNEEN.

Special Agent W. T. Dinneen, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, has just returned from the Evansville division where he caught two alleged car breakers.

W. S. Schweitzer and J. E. Simms are the names of the two men arrested for the alleged robbery of a train when they stole one barrel of beer consigned to Paducah firm from one of the Evansville breweries. The name of the purchaser of the beer has not been learned and Mr. Dinneen is looking it up while here.

Mr. Littell is to take charge October 1. He will have many agents under him and has decided to make his headquarters in Paducah. This appointment carries with it great responsibility and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he has been successful in landing such a good position. Mr. Littell resigned as ticket agent several weeks ago and was succeeded by Mr. George Warfield.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Southern Railway has inaugurated a line of free reclining chair cars on the night trains between Lexington, Louisville and St. Louis through without charge in each direction, in addition to the through sleepers and coaches heretofore operated.

These are brand new vestibuled cars with all the latest improvements, including smoking compartment, separate wash rooms for ladies and gentlemen, lighted by Pinesch gas. These reclining chair cars are sure to prove popular with the patrons of the road as they are very comfortable and at night the chairs can be turned back, and used instead of the Pullman sleeper without any extra charge. Any passenger holding a regular through ticket over the Southern Railway is entitled to ride in these cars.

FINE WORK

DONE IN CARRYING THE WAL-LACE SHOW.

The Great Wallace Shows arrived in Paducah from Martin, Tenn., this morning at 3 o'clock pulled in two sections by the biggest and strongest engines on the system.

The shows exhibited in Martin last night and will show back of the railroad hospital tonight. Tomorrow the show will go to Princeton and then to Central City. At Central City the Sunday lay over will occur and Monday two exhibitions given. The Illinois Central will then turn the Greatest Shows on earth over to the L. & N. road.

The trains were pulled by engines 1005, the big Pacific type of locomotive and 711, a big four driver connected freight engine. Good time was made from Martin and before 11 o'clock the entire show had been unloaded, one of the most successful jobs ever engineered in Paducah. Trainmaster Henry Scheuing aided in overseeing the unloading and the placement of the cars on sidings and has prepared the show for immediate movement after tonight's performance.

TO BUILD NEW TOOL ROOM.

This morning timber, sash doors, etc., were hauled to the local Illinois Central shop for the erection of the tool room which will be built between the machine and blacksmith shops. The present tool room is located in the machine shops and was removed because more machinery is being installed in the shops and the tool room had to go. The work of building the house will begin at once.
